Binge Worthy

How are you guys doing? What have you found that is helpful during these COVID-19 times? Connie and I have been enjoying daily Bible messages, blog posts, podcasts, and videos from favorite authors, entertainers, and musicians. Almost everyone who was once in the public eye is now sharing via social media from their homes or other remote locations. Connie has her daily playlist of helpful messages, as do I.

The DVR has seen a lot of use lately recording movies, concerts, and messages to watch at our convenience. We've also enjoyed our fair share of TV shows and movies now available on ROKU. Technology has truly been helpful for those moments when we needed positive ways to fill the extra down time in our days.

Another silver lining we have discovered during this pandemic is eating lots of our meals at home. We've been able to eat healthier as a result of being home more, and enjoyed new recipes we'd never tried before.

Like most people out there, I'm sure, Connie and I have tried to stay positive and dwell on helpful insights. A key component of our daily schedule has been reading the Bible a lot. Online Bible studies and daily readings from the Bible App have kept us focused on God's eternal promises during these uncertain times. One of the most well-known verses has become a part of my hand-washing regimen. Reciting Psalm 23 is my way of being sure I count to 30 every time I wash my hands. A pastor friend tweeted months ago that this was his strategy; I adopted it also.

I'll close today with Psalm 23. You may want to give this upgraded hand-washing technique a try as well. I highly recommend it ... Psalm 23 is binge worthy.

"The LORD is my shepherd; I have everything I need. He lets me rest in fields of green grass and leads me to quiet pools of fresh water.

He gives me new strength. He guides me in the right paths, as he has promised. Even if I go through the deepest darkness, I will not be afraid, LORD, for you are with me. Your shepherd's rod and staff protect me.

You prepare a banquet for me, where all my enemies can see me; you welcome me as an honored guest and fill my cup to the brim. I know that your goodness and love will be with me all my life; and your house will be my home as long as I live." Psalm 23:1-6 GNB

Moving Forward. God is Good.
